

2025 BOUNTY OF THE BARRENS MARKET

The purpose of the Bounty of the Barrens Market (BOTBM), operated by Sustainable Glasgow, Inc. is to promote the development of diversified family-size farms in our region. We intend to provide an attractive environment for the sale of locally grown produce, locally produced food products, and Kentucky crafts. We aim to create a community of educated consumers who understand the value of local, diversified food production for our health, our economy, and our environment. NO SOLICITING IS ALLOWED AT ANY BOUNTY OF THE BARRENS FARMERS MARKET OR SUSTAINABLE GLASGOW EVENTS.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

- A. All guidelines for this market are intended to promote the purposes outlined above.
- B. Participation (membership) in the Market is subject to the completion of a Vendor Application and approval by the Farmer's Market Committee (FMC).
- C. The application process will include a farm visit by members of FMC. The FMC will schedule a farm visit with the vendor prior to the first market setup, and schedule & conduct a follow-up visit if any issues/concerns arise while a vendor at BOTBM.
- D. Vendors are required to pay a $75 seasonal market membership fee. A $10 booth fee shall be paid each day vendors set up at the market. Based on availability, vendors will be assigned a space for the season, but may be moved if deemed necessary by the FMC or Market Manager.
- E. Guest Vendors may submit s Vendor Application and participate in one market day for the daily booth fee of $10, but must be approved by the FMC and become full members of BOTBM to continue participation in our events after that initial trial day.
